

2023 CONVENIENCE STORE WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Ontario's Convenience Store Week recognizes and celebrates the important role of the convenience industry and its hard-working individuals.

Convenience Store Week, which ran from August 28 to September 1, was an opportunity for OLG to join in the Ontario government's efforts to promote the convenience industry and to thank our convenience retailer partners while highlighting OLG's contributions to the province.

Kenny Shim, President, Ontario Korean Businessmen's Association (OKBA) and Nancy Kennedy, Chief Lottery & Customer Officer OLG.

Genny White-Brown, Sales Specialist OLG, Sandra Barr, Sales Specialist OLG, and Nazmul Huda, Dealer of Quickie St. Laurent in Ottawa.

Thomas Sheehan, Store Owner and OCSA Treasurer, Duncan Hannay, President & CEO OLG, and Dave Bryans, CEO Ontario Convenience Store Association (OCSA)

OLG took this opportunity to recognize the vital role of the convenience industry and its dedicated stars, like Thomas Sheehan from Enniskillen General Store. For him, selling Lottery isn't just about tickets; it's about sharing in the excitement when you get to bring home the win!
